THE HINDU

If others can do it, why can't we!

There is nothing that can disappoint a parent, confidant and harsh of a student when it comes to cracking competitive examinations. Kashmir youth have also shown. All they need is a proper guidance and exposure. It is time to wake up and tell the world that we can make it to the civil services. Dr Shah Faisal, the young Kashmiri who topped the IAS examination this year, talks about his journey to Civil Services, mentoring factors suggested for the JK youth, and much more in an interview with Greater Kashmir's correspondent, Tahseen Akhtar
