

First Year LL.M. (Business Law) Degree Examination
Aug/Sept 2009
(Directorate of Distance Education)
(Freshers)

INDIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW : THE NEW CHALLENGES

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 80

- Note :
1. Answer All questions.
 2. All questions carry EQUAL marks.
 3. Answer should be supported by reference to the relevant statutory provisions and case laws.
 4. No clarifications can be sought on the question paper. In case of any ambiguity, students are expected to rely on the question paper as it is and respond.
-
1. a) Examine the factors influencing federalism and factors responsible for subordination of States in the era of advocacy for co-operative federalism.
OR
b) Critically examine the constitutional provisions and legislations relating to compensatory jurisprudence.
 2. a) Critically examine the provisions relating to protective discrimination.
OR
b) Discuss the emerging concept of new rights and remedies in the harmonious construction of directive principles fundamental duties and fundamental rights.
 3. a) Describe the various aspects of religious freedom.
OR
b) Discuss the Constitutional Jurisprudence on gender Justice for empowering women.
 4. a) Examine the challenges to freedom of expression in the light of scientific development? Whether the restrictions under article 19(2) are sufficient to meet out the demands of technological developments?
OR
b) Critically examine the doctrine of separation of powers under the constitution.
 5. a) Write short notes on the following :
 - i) Electoral reforms
 - ii) Limits of Epistolary JurisdictionOR
 - i) Special status of certain areas
 - ii) Judicial independence and accountability

* * *