MSc Information Technology

Why MSc.IT?

M.sc IT has a good Scope in Future not only in India but abroad also.

And after completing this course, you will get jobs in Some Good Multinational Companies, Good Software companies, and also in Academic Fields, etc.

You will get good exposure in the Job Market.

So, after completing this course with good marks, you will get lot of job opportunity in software field and you can apply in various company like TCS, WIPRO, IBM, CTS, INFOSYS.

MSc.IT

MSc.IT provides an in-depth knowledge in core areas of computer science, which include fundamentals of Systems and Software.

Apart from the core courses, elective papers in the areas of Fuzzy Logic, Software Project Management, Artificial Intelligence and much more.

The theory taught in the classroom is translated into practical applications through laboratory work and hands-on-training.

Web Engineering and Internet applications, Operating Systems, RDBMS and System software help students excel in practical.

The computing laboratories are well equipped with high-end servers on LAN.
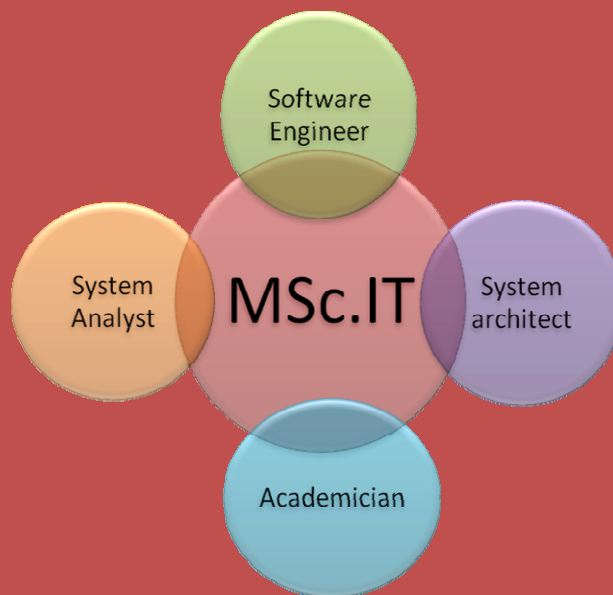

Future after MSc.IT

The many people who proclaim the future of IT in India to be dim, have probably failed to recognize the magnitude of modernization various field are undergoing, and that the trend is bound to continue in future.

A few years ago, we couldn't have thought of building our own intelligent submarines and fighter-jets, computer systems, analyzers and the like.

MSc IT is one of the postgraduate degrees available in the educational arena, and the recognition it has got.

After completion of M.Sc.IT, you can represent as a

- software engineer,
- system architect,
- system analyst in leading industry,
- can pursue higher studies in India or abroad,
- Or can be a prospective academician in institutions.

M. Sc.-IT v/s MCA

MCA and MSc IT are different post graduate courses in the field of computers and their applications in the industry.

MSc.IT	MCA
MSc. Information Technology	Master of Computer Application
MSc.IT is a 2 year post graduation degree course	MCA is a 3 year Post graduation degree course
This course is designed for the students who wish to build their career in IT field and who have successfully completed their bachelor's degree in BCA, BSc. Information Science, and BSc. Computer Science.	This course is designed for the students who have successfully completed their bachelor's degree in science, commerce, or management. For the admission in MCA, Students have to go through the Entrance exam (GCET).
MSc IT is broader in scope as students learn all about computers with an emphasis on using information for the benefit of businesses and technology.	MCA is a specialized course
It costs (Fees) less compare to MCA.	It costs(Fees) more compare to MSc.IT