

1. The doctrine of 'territorial nexus' means that
 - a. Laws made by the State Legislature may have their application to the people of other State when there is direct relation between such laws and people of other States
 - b. the territory of every State is open to all citizens of India for the purpose of trade and commerce
 - c. The state Legislature is sovereign within its territory
 - d. Laws made by sovereign State Legislatures cannot be questioned on the ground of extra-territorial operation
2. A party who suffers loss as a result of breach of contract can in the usual course claim
 - a. Ordinary damages
 - b. Special damages
 - c. Exemplary damages
 - d. Penal damages
3. During rainy season there is water logging in many areas of a city. The dirty water remains for months because of faulty drainage. The water causes hardships and diseases.
4. Which one of the following correctly describes the reason for the disposal of the case?
 - a. The corporation committed no 'nuisance'
 - b. Lack of financial capacity on the part of municipal corporation is not a defense
 - c. Water logging was caused by heavy rains which is an act of Nature exempting the municipal corporation.
 - d. A duty is imposed on the municipal corporation by the statute.
5. Which one of the following statements correctly conveys Fuller's theory of inner morality of law?
 - a. Every piece of law, in order to valid, must fulfill, certain procedural requirements like generality, prospectively promulgation, intelligibility and consistency
 - b. The contents of every law, in order to be valid must be a minimum moral standard
 - c. The question of morality of every law is a matter for the inner conscience of the legislators and judges have nothing to do with it
 - d. The questions of morality of law is not for the courts to determine