

MBA Degree first year exam April 2014

Accounting and finance for managers

Time: 3 hours

Maximum marks: 100

Answer any five questions. Each question will carry 20 marks.

1. What is the demand of having subsidiary account?
2. Explain why discount allowed is taken under the debit side and discount received is taken below the credit position?
3. What are the factors of the non cash transaction?
4. Illustrate the interrelationships in between the accounting statements and statement of position.
5. Explain the various accounting concepts and conventions through additional data or accommodations.
6. Define depreciation. Explain the meaning of the term depreciation.
7. Elucidate the process of Depreciation Accounting.

MBA Degree first year examination April 2013

Accounting and finance for managers

Time: 3 hours

Maximum marks: 100

Answer any five of the following questions. Each question will carry 20 marks.

1. Illustrates various kinds of drawing and their treatment in the financial statements. Elucidate the process of Depreciation Accounting.
2. What is meant by accounting ratio analysis? Elucidate the importance of the ratio analysis. What are the steps involved in the process of fund flow statement?
3. Define budgetary control. Highlight the various types of budgets. What is Break Even Point Analysis? Briefly explains the profit volume ratio.

4. What is meant by finance? Explain the relationship between the finance and their related disciplines. Explain the objectives of financial management.
5. Define time value of money. Explain the classifications of the time value money. Illustrates the rule of 69 with live example from the banking industry.
6. Highlight the importance of capital budgeting. What are two different classifications of capital budgeting tools?
7. Explain the various statistical measures available for risk. Elucidate the systematic and unsystematic risk.
8. Write short notes on marginal cost, equity share, debentures and dividend policy.