Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

6 × 1 = 6

The frail man wearing a jubba and dark glasses and carrying a walking stick was a familiar figure all over India. One day people returning home from offices in Madras were surprised to find him walking along the road to the Central Railway Station just like an ordinary man. There were surprised looks and excited enquiries. People asked one another, 'Why is he walking in this crowd ? It could be dangerous.' The man they were talking about was Chakravarthi Rajagopalachari and he was then the Chief Minister of Madras State. When Rajaji, as he was popularly and affectionately known, was asked why he was going to the station on foot he had a simple answer. He had actually come by car. But the traffic jam near the station had forced the car to stop. He had to reach the station in time, so he had got out of the car and was walking. In any case, he did not see any reason why he should not walk a few steps even though he was the Chief Minister of the State.

Questions :

58. Who is 'the frail man' referred to in the passage ?

59. Why were the people surprised to find him walking along the road like an ordinary man ?

60. Why was he actually walking ?

61. What was he affectionately known as ?
