

Scholarships Terms & Conditions

The following terms and conditions are applicable to all undergraduate and postgraduate scholarship and bursary awards (an "Award") made to students and administered by the Anglia Ruskin University Higher Education Corporation ("Anglia Ruskin University"). In accepting any Award in accordance with these conditions, a student enters into a binding contract with Anglia Ruskin University and thus agree to be legally bound by (1) the provisions of the Terms and Conditions herein; and (2) any specific additional Terms and Conditions which may be applicable to an Award of which a student may be notified by the University from time to time; (together "this Agreement"). In the event of any conflict between these Terms and Conditions and any specific additional Terms and Conditions which a student is notified by the University are applicable to particular Award, the latter terms shall take precedence.

It is a student's responsibility as Awardee to ensure he or she fully understands and is familiar with all terms and conditions associated with their Award, and that at all times, they remain in full compliance with such terms. Any failure to do so may put the student at risk of losing future Award payments, and/or being required by the Anglia Ruskin University to repay any payments of their Award that they may already have received prior to any such breach.

All Awards are awarded on the basis that the relevant student maintains an enrolled status in their course of study.

General Terms & Conditions

Program Eligibility

- To be eligible for Anglia Ruskin University Scholarships, students must be studying either a full time bachelor degree undergraduate programme or postgraduate taught or research programme at our Chelmsford, Cambridge or Peterborough campuses.
- CPD programmess, Foundation degrees, Extended degrees, Degree Apprenticeships, Distance Learning and/or short courses are ineligible for all scholarships
- Additional eligibility criteria for each scholarship is available in this document and should be read in conjunction with the general terms and conditions.
- In addition to meeting the eligibility requirements and terms and conditions of the scholarship award, all scholarship recipients must also meet any conditions attached to their academic offer from Anglia Ruskin University, and must comply with all visa and immigration requirements. In the event that a student is subsequently unable to meet and comply with any such academic, visa and/or immigration conditions for any reason, Anglia Ruskin University reserves the right to withdraw an Award with immediate effect, and to terminate this Agreement without any liability to the student, whatsoever. The decision as to whether any Awardee is deemed to have made satisfactory progress on their programme of study to receive payment of any Award shall be made at Anglia Ruskin University's sole discretion.

- It is a requirement of an Award that the student fully registers and is enrolled on their programme of study within three (3) weeks of the programme's published start date, and that the student remains so for the duration of their Award. Where a student fails to register on their programme of study on expiry of three (3) weeks following their programme's published start date Anglia Ruskin University reserves the right to withdraw the Award with immediate effect, and to terminate this Agreement without any liability to the student, whatsoever. No payment of any award or part thereof shall be made until the student is fully registered with Anglia Ruskin University.
- In the event that a student is required to repeat an academic year of study for any reason, the student shall not be entitled to receive any Award during such repeat year of study. At the sole discretion of Anglia Ruskin University and only where applicable, Award payments may recommence once the student has been approved by Anglia Ruskin University to progress to the next level of study, and the student is subsequently deemed by Anglia Ruskin University to be making satisfactory progress.
- In the event that a student is prevented from studying by ill-health or other circumstance (for example bereavement, pregnancy or other circumstance) for a continuous period of two (2) weeks or more, they are required to immediately inform their supervisor (personal tutor, student advisor or other University contact as appropriate) and provide a valid medical certificate or appropriate documentation confirming the reason for any absence. The student should be aware that any sustained period of absence from their studies may impact on their eligibility to continue receive their Award. Where a circumstance prevents study for a period in excess of two (2) weeks, a concession may have to be raised, or a suspension of studies sought, which may in-turn affect their registration status and their eligibility to continue to receive payment of their Award.

Eligibility for multiple scholarships

- Students eligible for multiple scholarships at Anglia Ruskin University will be entitled to receive only one, to the highest value for duration of each level of study, e.g. one scholarship for their undergraduate study, one scholarship for their postgraduate taught study and one for postgraduate research study.
- Students who are eligible for the Home/EU student alumni scholarship when undertaking postgraduate taught or research study will be eligible to receive one additional scholarship to receive a maximum of - the alumni scholarship + 1 scholarship.
- International students who receive the alumni scholarship are not eligible to receive any other scholarship.

Assessment of Eligibility

- Students must ensure that all information is provided and application forms are completed in full to be eligible to be considered for Anglia Ruskin University Scholarships.

- Decisions on the award of a scholarship shall be made by a panel selected by Anglia Ruskin University at its sole discretion (the "scholarship panel"). The scholarship panel's decision to award a scholarship shall be based on the eligibility criteria and exclusions specified for each scholarship. Unless otherwise specified in such criteria, decisions of the panel shall be based on academic achievements, motivation to study at ARU, completed application form where required and such other criteria as the panel deems appropriate.

Applicant and Scholarship Recipient Communications

- Post submitting an application students will receive confirmation of receipt via an email reply.
- Students will be advised via the email address given to ARU on their application form the outcome of their application. The instalments in which a student receives their Award shall be as specified by Anglia Ruskin University and are non-negotiable.
- Students eligible for the alumni, merit, International merit and EU scholarship are not required to submit an application form for these scholarships and will receive notification of their scholarship in their offer letter.
- Students will receive a certificate acknowledging receipt of the scholarship (except alumni, merit, International merit and EU scholarships).
- Successful scholarship recipients will be asked to participate in promotional activities which may include testimonials, participating in the student ambassador programme and other initiatives.

Withdrawal of Scholarship

- Anglia Ruskin University may (in its sole discretion) withdraw scholarships upon the following circumstances:
  - If the student has supplied incorrect or misleading information during the application process.
  - The recipient withdraws from studying at Anglia Ruskin University or discontinues at any point in the course. The student will no longer be eligible for the scholarship should they return to the course.
- Upon withdrawing the scholarship Anglia Ruskin University shall be entitled to seek repayment of any portion of an Award which may have been paid to a student, recoverable as a debt.
- Scholarship recipients must pay all tuition fees by the deadlines set by Anglia Ruskin, to the extent that such fees are not covered by the scholarship. Non-payment of these remaining fees will result in the scholarship being withdrawn and full fees being charged by Anglia Ruskin University, in accordance with Anglia Ruskin University's terms and conditions.

Miscellaneous

- Anglia Ruskin University is subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the students receiving Awards hereby agree that nothing in these terms and conditions shall be taken to prevent Anglia Ruskin University from making any disclosure required under the provisions of this Act.
- Any personal information collected by Anglia Ruskin University during the course of administration of an Award shall be handled and processed by Anglia Ruskin University strictly in accordance with the provisions of the the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679)). Anglia Ruskin University reserves the right to make changes to these terms and conditions at any time where such a change arises as a result of changes in regulations or legislation affecting the Award.

- Anglia Ruskin University may unilaterally change the terms in these terms and conditions by giving the student at least one (1) month's written notice of Anglia Ruskin University's intention to do so. In the event that the student does not wish to accept any such revised terms, the student reserves the right to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Anglia Ruskin University.
- This Agreement shall not be assigned by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party hereto.
- If the whole or any part of any provision of this Agreement is void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement, and the rest of the void or unenforceable provision, will continue in force in that jurisdiction, and the validity and enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction will not be affected.
- Nothing in this contract confers or purports to confer on any third party any right to enforce any term of this Agreement.
- This Agreement shall be interpreted according to the laws of England and Wales.

Sport Specific Terms and Conditions

- The scholarship can be withdrawn if the Scholar fails to meet the terms and conditions outlined below and in the Anglia Ruskin University Scholarships Terms and Conditions.

Finance

- Scholars receiving a Fee Scholarship will have the agreed amount deducted from their tuition fees.
- Scholars will be responsible for all costs related to applying to ARU (including visas) and moving costs prior to the start of their course at ARU.
- Scholars who receive cash payments will have them paid into the account provided via BACS to a UK bank account. Payments will be made in two instalments.
- Scholar payments are to help athletes with the costs related to performance sport and should be used for this purpose.

- Scholars who are unable to provide evidence that funds have been spent as agreed with the HPSC, when requested, will have the costs added to their student account as a debt.
- If the Scholar fails to spend the agreed scholar money, this cannot carry over to the next academic year. All receipts and payments must be made and submitted within the academic year. A year will be defined as 12 months from the first teaching week in semester 1 for September starters, and the first teaching week in Semester 2 for January starters. As published in the academic calendar.
- A Scholar transferring from ARU to another university before the scheduled finish of their degree will be liable to repay any financial contributions made to them in the current academic year, through the sports scholarship programme (see General Terms and Conditions).

Training, Matches, and Competitions

- Scholars are expected to have 100% attendance at training, matches, strength and conditioning sessions, and any other event organised by the HPSC, unless athletes have;
  - International, or representative (national team) competitions
  - University exams
  - Injury / illness (evidence from sport therapists or doctor's note will be required)
  - Other reasons agreed in advance with the HPSC
- Scholars unable to attend training or matches for any reasons should communicate this to the Head Coach or HPSC prior to the event.
- Scholars competing in sports that require individual entry into BUCS competitions should ensure that they have provided ARU staff with all of the required information for this purpose.
- When representing the University (competitions and presentations) Scholars must wear either ARU kit or Sport Scholar kit. At non-university competitions athletes should wear Sport Scholar kit where possible to help represent and promote ARU.
- ARU has a number of partner clubs and when the Scholar's sport is catered for it is expected that Scholars will compete for the partner club as well as competing for ARU in BUCS competitions, unless agreed with the HPSC in advance.
- If the Scholars can no longer compete in their sport, or performance / results have decreased over an extended period of time (to be reviewed each term) resulting in the Scholar no longer being one of the top athletes at ARU the scholarship may be withdrawn.

Academic

- Scholars are expected to abide by the Student Charter and Academic Regulations at all time.
- Scholars must comply with BUCS REG 6 Individual eligibility and team selection when competing in BUCS sports (full BUCS regulations)
- ARU have a policy that allows students to participate in sporting fixtures without sacrificing their academic attendance. The Wednesday Afternoon Policy should be followed when there is a clash between lectures and sporting fixtures.
- If a Scholar has a major competition which can include, but is not limited to, European, World, Commonwealth, and Olympic Games the Scholar needs to inform the HPSC in a timely fashion. The HPSC will work with the University academic department to try and support academic flexibility to support attendance at the competition.
- Students on a Tier 4 visa will become ineligible for sport if they fail to comply with ARU's tier 4 attendance monitoring policy.

Injury

- Scholars who are unfortunate to suffer from injury are expected to engage with the University's sport therapists at the earliest opportunity to get a recovery strategy in place.
- Scholars are expected to follow the advice of ARU sports therapists during recovery, and training should be supervised by the Strength and Conditioning Coach (S + C coach) in conjunction with the ARU Sport Therapists.
- The Scholar is responsible for keeping all relevant parties (Head Coaches, HPSC, S + C coach) informed on their progress.

Private Sponsorship

- Scholars are allowed to engage in private sponsorship but this must be separate from ARU, and private sponsorship branding cannot be on any ARU clothing.
- If it is deemed that any private sponsor could be damaging to the University's reputation or not in line with the values of ARU then the University has the right to request termination of this sponsorship or to withdraw support from the Scholar.
- Any promotional material the athlete wishes to use that promotes themselves, and has ARU branding involved, needs to be approved by ARU before it can be publicised.

Social Media

- Scholars are actively encouraged to engage in social media, however this should be appropriate of all times and in line with the ARU Social Media Policy
- All scholars are expected to attend social media training at the start of their time at ARU so they can positively promote themselves and ARU.

Communication

- Scholars are expected to provide, and keep updated, contact details to ARU and this will be used as the primary means of communication. Scholars must reply to all correspondence within 48 hrs during term time, and 1 week during vacation periods. If a Scholar knows this will not be possible they need to inform the HPSC before being away.
- If at any stage a scholar wishes to withdraw from their academic programme, ceases to participate in their sport, or for any other reason wishes to resign from the Scholarship programme they must meet with the HPSC. If they still wish to withdraw following the meeting then they must do so in writing to the HPSC.

Anti-doping Policies and Procedures

- Scholars are expected to comply with the UK Anti-Doping policies and procedures at all time. Scholars committing any anti-doping violation will have their scholarships withdrawn
- ARU has a zero tolerance policy regarding the use of recreational drugs.

General

- Scholars are expected to comply with the Rules, Regulations, and Procedures for students policy at all times.
