5 × 1 = 5

At the end of the day, the Man called the Horse, the Dog and the Ox together, and said, "Three, O Three, I'm very sorry for you ( with the world so new-and-all ) ; but that Humph-thing in the Desert can't work, or he would have been here by now, so I am going to leave him alone, and you must work double-time to make up for it." That made the Three very angry ( with the world so new-and-all ) and they held a palaver, and an indaba, and a panchayat, and a pow-wow on the edge of the Desert : and the camel came chewing on milk weed — most scruciating idle, and laughed at them. Then he said 'Humph' and went away again. Presently there came along the Djinn in charge of All Deserts, rolling in a cloud of dust ( Djinns always travel that way because it is Magic ) and he stopped to palaver and pow-wow with the Three.

"Djinn of All Deserts," said the Horse "Is it alright for any one to be idle, with the world so new-and-all ?" "Certainly not," said the Djinn.

Questions :

7. Why was the man sorry for the horse, the dog and the ox ?
  8. What did the man decide to do with the camel who refused to do work ?
  9. What made the three hardworking animals very angry ?
  10. Who was in-charge of all the Deserts ?
  11. What was Djinn's opinion on idleness ?
- D) 12. Write an essay by developing the following hints :

III. A) 23. Write the summary of the following passage in about 100 words : 5

Today the sense of responsibility and the devotion to work is disappearing slowly among the younger generation. Students' agitation has become a common scene now-a-days. So it has become essential to prepare the youth for their prosperous future and for the stronger nation. With this view in mind, the centre has introduced the national service scheme in schools and colleges. A coordinator has been appointed for the conduct of the scheme. In every school and college a teacher is deputed in charge of it. Fifty students from higher secondary classes are admitted into the scheme. In colleges students who are willing to join the scheme are enrolled in it. The aim of the scheme is to inculcate the qualities like leadership, cooperation, adjustability, discipline, team-spirit, a sense of responsibility and service mindedness. The scheme includes traffic regulation, helping the public, cleaning the surroundings, rural service, adult education etc. It conducts camp for ten days in rural areas. It also conducts national integration camps to understand and appreciate the culture of each state. Really this scheme shapes the youth into good and dutiful citizens.
