

MARCH 2007

[KQ 339]

Sub. Code : 2875

M.Pharm. DEGREE EXAMINATION.

(Regulations 2006)

First Year

Branch VIII — Phytopharmacy and Phytomedicine

Paper IV — INDIAN SYSTEMS OF MEDICINE

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

Theory : Two hours and
forty minutes

Theory : 80 marks

M.C.Q. : Twenty minutes

M.C.Q. : 20 marks

Answer ALL questions.

I. Long Essay : (1 × 20 = 20)

1. Compare the principles of Ayurveda, Siddha and Unani systems of Indian medicine. Discuss various method of standardization of Ayurvedic formulations.

II. Long Essay : (2 × 15 = 30)

1. Discuss the Toxicity studies of different formulations used in various complimentary medicines.

2. What are the objectives of GMP? Mention the salient features of GMP under schedule T for Ayurvedic, Siddha and Unani medicines.

III. Short notes : (6 × 5 = 30)

1. Importance of Tribal medicines.

2. Problems in standardization of Unani medicines.

3. Principles with merits and demerits of Homoeopathy system of medicine.

4. Collection, purification and processing of herbal drugs.

5. Different Dosage forms of Siddha system of medicine.

6. Pharmacological screening of drugs used in Indian system of medicine.

SEPTEMBER 2007
[KR 339] Sub. Code : 2875

M.Pharm. DEGREE EXAMINATION.

(Regulation – 2006)

First Year

Branch VIII — Phytopharmacy and Phytomedicine

Paper IV — INDIAN SYSTEMS OF MEDICINE

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 100 marks

Theory : Two hours and forty minutes

Theory : 80 marks

M.C.Q. : Twenty minutes

M.C.Q. : 20 marks

Answer ALL questions.

I. Long Essay :

1. Describe and comment on Pharmacological and Toxicological screening of Drugs used in Indian system of Medicines. (20)

2. Comment upon status and applicability of GMP regulations. (15)

3. Describe the methods used for quality control of herbal drugs. (15)

II. Short notes : (6 × 5 = 30)

1. Objectives of GMP.

2. Merits and demerits of Tribal Medicine.

3. Merits and demerits of Homeopathy system of medicines.

4. Comment upon problems in standardization of unnani medicine.

5. Explain the principles behind Siddha system of medicine.

6. Comment upon problems in standardization of Ayurvedic medicines.