The original degrees, certificates, and mark-sheets will be retained by the department / university for one year, for verification of authenticity. They can be returned before one year, only if the candidate withdraws his / her admission from the MA Geography program. Therefore, each student should keep enough photocopies for their own requirements like admission to hostel, health centre, computer centre, library, etc.

Procedure for Admission

Step 1: Candidate verifies his/her Name and Roll Number on the merit list, and reports to the Office of Department of Geography, with original degrees, mark-sheets and certificates for verification.

Step 2: The candidate is issued an Admission Form free of cost by the Office of the Head of Department of Geography, which is filled and submitted to the Office of the Head of Department of Geography.

Step 3: The candidate is issued a Fee Receipt by the Office of the Head of Department of Geography, and the fees (in cash) has to be paid in the Office of the Director of Delhi School of Economics. The Director's Office collects the fees between 10:00 am to 01:00 pm only on working days (Monday to Friday).

Step 4: The candidate submits the original Fee Receipt issued by the Office of the Head of Department of Geography, and photocopy (self-attested) of the Cash Receipt issued by the Office of the Director of Delhi School of Economics. With this his/her provisional admission to MA Geography program is formally completed.

All admissions made initially by the department are provisional, which are finally cleared and confirmed by the university, after checking the eligibility, and authenticity of degrees and certificates submitted by the candidates. Any discrepancy detected later by the university may lead to cancellation of admission that is being provisionally offered to the candidates by the department as per the merit list.

Candidates with mark-sheets giving grades, or degrees written in language other than English / Hindi will be admitted subject to approval from University's Equivalence Committee (UEC). Candidates with compartment will be offered admission, only if they are from University of Delhi. Such candidates will be admitted provisionally, subject to satisfying eligibility conditions, within one year.

Admissions to hostels are done by each hostel individually. The Merit List will be sent to all the hostels of University of Delhi, by the Office of the Head of Department of Geography after admissions are completed and closed. The admitted students should directly contact each hostel for admission to the hostel.

Classes of the new academic session 2012-13, in Semester I (Part I) will begin from Monday, 23rd July 2012. All candidates finally admitted to MA Geography program should report to the department at 10:00 am on Monday, 23rd July 2012 for an orientation program, which includes introduction to the department, courses, faculty, and other facilities, followed by introduction to e-resources in Ratan Tata Library.
