

Sl. No.	Syllabus for - Officer Trainee -CSR
1	History, philosophy, Sociology , political economy ,Psychology and fields of social work
2	Theory and practice of counselling
3	Working with individuals, groups and families,Administration of human service organizations
4	Community organization and social legislation, Social work research and statistics, Medical information for social work
5	Social work intervention and contemporary issues - Urban sociology, urban community development &municipal administration
6	Social work intervention and contemporary issues - Personnel administration in HSO, Psychiatric information for social work
7	Social work intervention and contemporary issues - Rural sociology, rural community development & panchayati raj
8	Social work intervention and contemporary issues - Family welfare Women's welfare and child welfare
9	Project planning and management - Social work in medical and psychiatric settings
10	Project planning and management - Developmental economics, Youth development and welfare, Office management iv and communication
11	Project planning and management - Community health, health care services, health administration & legislation, Social awareness for social change
12	Project planning and management - Population dynamics and family planning, Management of employer-employee relations in HSO
13	Introduction - Resources and Communication, Drivers of Corporate Sustainability - Socially and Ecologically responsibility
14	The Business Case for Corporate Sustainability - Distinguishes between compliance as a cost and compliance as leading to further opportunity
15	Phases of Corporate Sustainability - The phase model helps managers anticipate increased compliance standards and identify strategic, various approaches to the implementation of sustainability atives
16	Transformational Change to Corporate Sustainability - strategic repositioning-proactive and flexible and may require a redefinition of the company's core business area or its key manufacturing processes
17	Leadership and Change to Corporate Sustainability - progressing corporate sustainability - ebates on achieving and leading corporate sustainability and responsibility