

Bachelor of Science in agriculture identifies the up gradation of technology and the application modern techniques in Agriculture. The course makes students aware about the grandness of agriculture and the necessity of boosting agriculture profession in India. They must also be made aware about the schemes that must be made for the optimum utilization of natural resources in agriculture.

The minimum qualification required for this course is a pass in intermediate 10+2 class with Science as the main subject. Certain Colleges specify cut off marks along with this eligibility criteria during the selection process. The duration of B. Sc Agriculture course is 3 years. There exist three Colleges in Kerala that offers Bachelor of Science degree in agriculture

After successful completion of the course, the aspirant either can go for higher studies or can search a comfortable job in this sector. It is better to go for higher study options, such as Master of Science in agriculture, due to their high demand in job market. Higher studies make the students efficient with detailed knowledge on the subject. Another better option to grab a challenging job in this sector is to pursue an MBA degree in Agriculture. There exist a lot of public and private sector organizations offering wide job openings to graduates in Agriculture. A graduate in agriculture can seek job in

- Banks
- Food chains
- Insurance companies
- Dairy consultancies
- Animal industry etc

B.Sc Agriculture Colleges in Kerala

College of Agriculture, Trivandrum

The College is located at Vellayani in Thiruvananthapuram district. This is one among the well-reputed Colleges in under the management of Kerala Agricultural University. This College offers 3-year full time program on B. Sc Agriculture.

College of Agriculture, Kasargode

The College is located at Padannakkad in Kasargode district. The management of Kerala Agricultural University powers this College also.

College of Horticulture

The College is located at Vellanikkara of Thrissur district. This College offers graduate as well as postgraduate courses in Agriculture.

Best Colleges offering B. Sc Agriculture in Kerala

All the three Colleges mentioned above offer best training in Agriculture to students of Kerala. These Colleges offers better infrastructure for practical sessions along with well-experienced faculties for training. These Colleges impart training in such a way that the students may become efficient in all aspects of production, distribution and marketing of agricultural products. As agriculture is an evolving sector, graduates in this area can a lot of job opportunities, which adds a mark to their bright future.