INTRODUCTION

Aligarh Muslim University is one of the oldest premier Central Universities of India with a unique and rich culture of its own. The University has its origin in a school founded in 1875 by the great educationist, social reformer and visionary Sir Syed Ahmad Khan

In tune with the ideals of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan and with the aim to educationally uplift a larger section of the community, Aligarh Muslim University maintains five High Schools, viz.—S.T.S. High School—AMU City High School—AMU Girls’ High School—AMU City Girls’ High School (Qazi Para) —Ahmadi School for the Visually Challenged. S.T.S. High School and AMU City High School admit only male candidates while AMU Girls’ High School offers admission to female candidates only. AMU City Girls’ High School (Qazi Para) offers admission to both boys and girls in class I and only to girls in class VI. Visually impaired boys and girls can seek admission in Ahmadi School for the Visually Challenged.

All Schools maintained by the University aim primarily at the education of the Muslim Community. Admission, however, is open to children of all communities without distinction of caste, creed and religion.

These schools generally follow the C.B.S.E. / N.C.E.R.T. curriculum. Due attention is paid to the overall personality development of the students and they are encouraged to excel not only in academics, but also in sports and extra curricular activities. The University Schools have adopted and implement comprehensive and continuous evaluation systems to assess the performance of the students on regular basis.

SYEDNA TAHIR SAIFUDDIN HIGH SCHOOL (Minto Circle)

The School was founded in 1875 by Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, the founder of Aligarh Muslim University. The foundation stone of the School was laid down on May 24, 1875 by Maulvi Samiullah Khan who was a close associate of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan and Secretary of the M.A.O. College Fund Committee. Its original name was “Mohammedan Anglo Oriental Collegiate School”. Teaching in this School was started on June 1, 1875 with 11 students on its rolls. Henry George Impey Siddons, a graduate from Oxford University, was its first Headmaster. The School was initially affiliated to the Calcutta University for the Matriculation examination and the first batch of four students appeared in the examination of 1877.

Later on, the School was affiliated to the Allahabad University till the establishment of Aligarh Muslim University in 1920. The School then bore the name, Muslim University High School, but was popularly known as “Minto Circle”, after the then Viceroy of India, Lord Minto (1905-10), who generously funded for the construction of its new building. In 1966, the School was named after Syedna Tahir Saifuddin, the then Chancellor of A.M.U., and since then is known as S.T.S. High School.

The School has a well equipped library, play ground for outdoor games and a Common Room for indoor games. The School also has well developed Computer Laboratory and other facilities to keep the students abreast with the latest technology. The alumni of the School have distinguished themselves in various walks of life, both in India and abroad.

The total strength of the School is around one thousand six hundred. There is provision for students to reside in the hostels within the School Campus.

Hostel Accommodation

Hostel facilities are available for nearly two hundred students of Class VI to Class X only in the two hostels - Rasool and Jamal - maintained by the School. Students allotted hostel accommodation shall have to pay the following charges for the session 2012-2013:
