Time : Three hours   Maximum : 100 marks

PART A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL the questions in about 50 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

1.   Name the nature of development.

2.   What is adaptive behaviour?

3.   Name the reflexes in motor development.

4.   What is meant by ego centrism?

5.   Define language.

6.   What emotional intelligence means?

7.   Name the four identity status.

8.   Define post conventional reasoning.

9.   Name the moral behaviours in social development.

10.   Define play therapy.

PART B — (5 × 6 = 30 marks)

Answer ALL the questions in about 250 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

11. (a) Brief about the process of development.

Or

(b) Discuss about Erikson's theory.

12. (a) Explain the measures of neonatal health and responsiveness.

Or

(b) Write about development biodynamics.

13. (a) What are Piaget's main contributions and write about its criticism?

Or

(b) Write a note on emotional problems in adolescence.

14. (a) Summarize the criticisms of Kohlberg's theory.

Or

(b) Describe the nature of moral feelings.

15. (a) Write about schools of adolescents.

Or

(b) What are the eating disorders of adolescents?

PART C — (5 × 10 = 50 marks)

Answer ALL the questions in about 500 words each.

All questions carry equal marks.

16. (a) Describe some contemporary concern about today's children.

Or

(b) Explain the theories of child development in brief.

17. (a) Discuss Vygotsky's theory of cognitive development.

Or

(b) Write about languages rule systems.

18. (a) Define stress and how to cope-up with it.

Or

(b) Discuss about identity.

3   P/ID 28452/PPYB

19. (a) Explain about the moral thoughts of moral development.

                    Or

     (b) Summarize the moral behaviour in moral development.

20. (a) What are the types of play in children development?

                    Or

     (b) Describe about early childhood education.

                    ——————