

Code No.
(Office Use Only)

Subject
(to be filled up by the Candidate)

No. of extra sheets used
(to be filled up by the Candidate)

Code No.
(Office Use Only)

Deputy Manager
Recruitment Examination, 2008

.....
Full Name of Candidate in block letters

Roll No.

Subject

.....
Full Signature of Candidate with date

.....
Signature of Invigilator with date

Instructions

1. This is a question paper cum answer booklet.
2. Answer must be written on both sides of each sheet of paper except the back side of this cover page.
3. Rough work, if done in this book, should be penned through afterwards. No leaves should be torn out and nothing must be written on the question paper.
4. Candidates should write their Names and Roll Nos. in the space provided on this title page and nowhere else. Names or Roll Nos. should not be written anywhere inside the answer book or on any loose sheet such as precis sheet, graph paper or map used.
5. Candidates must hand over unauthorised books and papers to the Invigilator before the examination commences.
6. Candidates must remain seated until the answer book is collected by the Invigilator.
7. Candidates using additional answer books must get them stitched before handing over to the Invigilator.
8. A candidates shall not disclose his/her identity by writing his/her name, roll number or putting any identifying mark, anywhere other than the space mentioned above for avoiding penal measure.
9. Candidates should use/put XYZ or ABC or କଖଗ or any such fictitious mark instead of their name or address in answering question of letter-writing or report-writing.
10. No candidate will be allowed to leave the examination hall before the scheduled hour of conclusion of the exam.

Subject : ENGLISH

Full Marks : 100

PAPER-II

TIME : 2 HRS.

1. Write a precis of the following passage and give a title— 20

To get great ideas we require great teachers. These teachers may be living persons with whom we come in daily contact or they may be dead and yet reach us through great books which they have given to the world. In whichever way it comes, the teaching required is that which guides to a large outlook. Yet, after all, it is only to a little extent that the teacher, be he living or one who though dead, yet speaks, can mould his student. There is no royal road to learning. The higher it is, the harder is the toil of spirit that is required for its attainment. But this toil brings with it happiness. As we advance along the path, we see more and more territory to traverse, new heights to scale, heights which are accessible only to patient labour, but the scaling of which promises us a new sense of possession. The mere endeavour, even apart from the result, brings its reward.

2. Write a letter to the editor of a popular daily news paper to state the dangerous situation you have experienced while taking a serious patient to the hospital because you were detained on the road by a procession. 20

or

Write a letter to your friend requesting him to help you to arrange a Charity show you are going to stage for the benefit of a serious cancer patient.

3. Use any five of the following idiomatic expressions in sentences of your own— 5

Worn out, at the bidding of, thrown on the scrapheap, drag on, impinge upon, meet more than half way.

4. Add suitable negative prefixes to the following (any five) and make sentences with them— 10 alignment, entangle, associate, advantageous, distinct, violent.

5. Give the antonyms of any five of the following and make sentences with them— 10 great, progress, faith, narrow, dynamic, exclusion.

6. Give the adjectival forms of any five of the following— 5 earth, science, cricket, lustre, herb, virtue.

7. Write an essay within 400 words on any one of the following— 30

(a) Man and Trees

(b) Rights and duties of a citizen

(c) Industrial profile of West Bengal.