January 23, 2023 by suresh84

IGNOU B.Ed. Entrance Exam-2021

PART-A

Section-I General English Comprehension

Directions (Qs. No. 1-10): Read the following passage carefully and choose the best answer out of the four choices given after each question that follows:

Nature is like business. Business sense dictates that we guard our capital and live from the interest. Nature's capital is the enormous diversity of living things. Without it, we cannot feed ourselves, cure ourselves of illness or provide industry with the raw materials of wealth creation. Professor Edward Wilson of Harvard University, says: "The folly our descendants are least likely to forgive us is the ongoing loss of genetic and species diversity. This will take millions of years to correct."

Only 150 plant species have ever been widely cultivated. Yet over 75,000 edible plants are known in the wild. In a hungry world, with a population growing by 90 million each year, so much wasted potential is tragic. Medicines from the wild are worth around 40 billion dollars a year. Over 5000 species are known to yield chemical with cancer fighting potential. Scientists currently estimate that the total number of species in the world is between 10-30 million with only around 1.4 million identified.

The web of life is torn when human beings exploit natural resources in short-sighted ways. The trade in tropical hardwoods can destroy whole forests to extract just a few commercially attractive specimens. Bad agricultural practices trigger 24 billion tonnes of top soil erosion a year losing the equivalent of 9 million tonnes of grain output. Cutting this kind of unsuitable exploitation and instituting "sustainable utilization" will help turn the environmental crisis around.

1. Why does the author compare 'nature' to 'business'?

- (A) Because of the capital depletion in nature and business
- (B) Because of the similarity with which one should use both
- (C) Because of the same interest level yield
- (D) Because of the diversity of the various capital inputs

▼ Show Answer

2. "The folly our descendants are least likely to forgive us"-What is the business equivalent of the folly the author is referring to?

- (A) Reducing the profit margin
- (B) Not pumping some money out of profits into the business

Section-V : (v) Hindi

निर्देश (प्रश्न संख्या 161 से 165): निम्नलिखित गद्यांश को ध्यानपूर्वक पढ़कर उसके आधार पर पूछे गए प्रश्नों के उत्तर दीजिए।

सच्चे वीर अपने प्रेम के जोर से लोगों को सदा के लिए बाँध देते हैं। वीरता की अभिव्यक्ति कई प्रकार से होती है, कभी लड़ने से, खून बहाने से, तोप तलवार के सामने बलिदान करने से होती है, तो कभी जीवन के गूढ़ तत्व और सत्य की तलाश में बुद्ध जैसे राजा विरक्त होकर वीर हो जाते हैं। वीरता हमेशा निराली और नई होती है। वीरों को बनाने के कारखाने नहीं होते हैं और वे देवदार वृक्ष की तरह बिना किसी के पानी दिए, बिना दूध पिलाए बढ़ते हैं। जीवन के केन्द्र में निवास करो और सत्य की चट्टान पर दृढ़ता से खड़े हो जाओ। बाहर की सतह छोड़कर जीवन के अंदर की तहों में पहुँचो तब नए रंग खिलेंगे। यही वीरता का संदेश है।
