Q7) Write an essay on any one of the following:

- (a) Youth today
- (b) Pollution.

Q8) Make a summary of the following:

Almost two decades old, this book 'Stand' started with just three or four stalls and now has grown ten fold. It even has its own "Old Books Welfare Association", which was formed in 1994. It is currently headed by Javed Ali Khan who says that the association was formed to keep a check on the increasing numbers of shops and to put forward their demands before the administration. Every time during election campaigning they are promised Pucca shops, but once the candidate gets elected the promises made are forgotten. Their business is at the mercy of the weather gods and they bravely face the extreme summers. (What with temperatures all set to touch 45 degree C), torrential rains and the chilly winters.

Q9) Write an article for your college magazine about "What is wrong with education in India today".
