- (b) it appears to the Director of Public Prosecutions that the person convicted may have benefited from drug trafficking and has or may have realisable property, on application by the Director of Public Prosecutions, the magistrate shall at the time of conviction commit such person for sentence by a Judge of the High Court and shall remit to the judge his recommendations as to such sentence and the reasons therefor.

(2) Where a person appears before the High Court (hereinafter referred to as “the Court”) to be sentenced in respect of a drug trafficking offence or where a person, after having been committed to the Court for trial, is convicted of a drug trafficking offence, the Court shall act as follows:

- (a) the Court shall first determine whether he has benefited from drug trafficking;
- (b) if the Court determines that he has so benefited, the Court shall, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence, determine in accordance with section 33 the amount to be recovered by virtue of this section;
- (c) the Court shall then in respect of the offence concerned—
 - (i) order him to pay that amount;
 - (ii) take account of the order before—
 - A. imposing any fine on him;

- B. making any order involving any payment by him; or
 - C. making any order under section 53; and
- (iii) subject to subparagraph (ii), leave the order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with the defendant.

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a person who has, at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, received any payment or other reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another has benefited from drug trafficking.

(4) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary where an order is made against an offender under this section, the Court may, in addition to the making of that order, deal with the offender in any way it considers appropriate in respect of the drug trafficking offence for which the order was made.

(5) In this Part and in Part VI and Part VII—

- (a) “confiscation order” means an order made under subsection (2);
- (b) “defendant” means a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence whether or not he has been convicted.

- (b) the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards.

Assessing the proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) The Court may, for the purposes of determining whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking and, if he has so benefited, of assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, make the assumptions referred to in subsection (3) except to the extent that any of the assumptions are shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case.

(3) The assumptions referred to in subsection (2)—

(a) that any property appearing to the Court—

(i) to have been held by him at any time since his conviction; or

(ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, was received by him, at the earliest time at which he appears to the Court to have held it, as a payment or reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him;

(b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period of six years was met out of payments received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him; and

(c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as such a reward, he received the property free of any other interests in it.

(4) For the purposes of assessing the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him, the Court shall leave out of account any of his proceeds of drug trafficking that are shown to the Court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that order.

Statements
relating to drug trafficking.

32. (1) Where—

(a) there is tendered to the Court by the Director of Public Prosecutions a statement as to any matters relevant to the determination whether the defendant has benefited from drug trafficking or to the assessment of the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking; and

- (b) the defendant accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the Court may, for the purposes of that determination and assessment, treat his acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

- (2) Where—

- (a) a statement is tendered under subsection (1)(a);
and
(b) the Court is satisfied that a copy of that statement has been served on the defendant, the Court may require the defendant to indicate to what extent he accepts each allegation in the statement and, so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to indicate any matters he proposes to rely on.

(3) If the defendant fails in any respect to comply with a requirement under subsection (2) he may be treated for the purposes of this section as accepting every allegation in the statement apart from—

- (a) any allegation in respect of which he has complied with the requirement; and
(b) any allegation that he has benefited from drug trafficking or that any payment or other reward was received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another.

- (4) Where—

- (a) there is tendered to the Court by the defendant a statement as to any matters relevant to determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made; and
(b) the Director of Public Prosecutions accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the Court may, for the purposes of that determination, treat the acceptance by the prosecutor as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(5) An allegation may be accepted or a matter indicated for the purposes of this section either—

- (a) orally before the Court; or
- (b) in writing to the Court.

(6) No acceptance by the defendant under this section that any payment or other reward was received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence.

Amount to be recovered under confiscation order.

33. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case under the confiscation order shall be the amount the Court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) If the Court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made, whether by an acceptance under section 32 or otherwise, the Court may issue a certificate giving the Court's opinion as to the matters concerned and shall do so where subsection (3) applies.

(3) If the Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the Court assesses to be the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case under the confiscation order shall be the amount appearing to the Court to be the amount that might be so realised.

Definition of principal terms used.

34. (1) In this Act "realisable property" means—

- (a) any property held by the defendant; and
- (b) any property held by a person to whom the defendant has directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Act.

(2) Property is not realisable property if any forfeiture order is in force in respect of the property under any written law.

(3) For the purposes of sections 32 and 34 the amount that might be realised at the time a confiscation order is made against the defendant is—

- (a) the total of the values at that time of all the realisable property held by the defendant, less
- (b) where there are obligations having priority at that time, the total amounts payable in pursuance of such obligations, together with the total of the values at that time of all gifts caught by this Act.

(4) Subject to this section, for the purposes of this Act the value of property, other than cash, in relation to any person holding the property—

- (a) where any other person holds an interest in the property, is the market value of the first mentioned person's beneficial interest in the property, less the amount required to discharge any encumbrance, other than a charging order, on that interest; and.
- (b) in any other case, is its market value.

(5) Subject to subsection (9), references in this Act to the value at any time, referred to in subsection (6) as “the material time”, of a gift caught by this Act or of any payment or reward are references to—

- (a) the value of the gift, payment or reward to the recipient when he received it adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money; or

- (a) the property not being cash, which he received; or
- (b) property which, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, represents in his hands the property which he received, the value referred to in subsection (5)(b) is the value to him at the material time of the property referred to in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, of the property referred to in paragraph (b) so far as it represents the property which he received, but disregarding in either case any charging order.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (3), an obligation has priority at any time if it is an obligation of the defendant to—

- (a) pay an amount due in respect of a fine or other order of a Court, imposed or made on conviction of an offence, where the fine was imposed or order made before the confiscation order; or
- (b) pay any sum which would be included among the priority debts in the defendant's bankruptcy commencing on the date of the confiscation order or winding up under an order of the Court made on that date.

 - (ii) which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in the defendant's hands property received by him in that connection.

(9) For the purposes of this Act—

- (a) the circumstances in which the defendant is to be treated as making a gift include those where he transfers property to another person directly or indirectly for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration provided by the defendant; and

- (b) in circumstances referred to in paragraph (a), the preceding provisions of this section shall apply as if the defendant had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the values referred to in paragraph (a) bears to the value of the consideration provided by the defendant.

35. Where the defendant fails to pay the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order within a period of three months from the date of the confiscation order or such other period as specified by the Court the defendant shall be liable to imprisonment which term shall run consecutively to any other term imposed by the Court and which shall not exceed the maximum fixed in the following scale:

(2) Cash seized by virtue of this section shall not be detained for more than ninety-six hours unless its continued detention is authorised detention authorised by an order made by a magistrate and no such order shall be made unless the magistrate is satisfied—

(b) the Comptroller of Accounts, may release the cash together with any interest that may have accrued, if satisfied that its detention is no longer justified but shall first notify the justice of the peace or magistrate under whose order it is being detained.

(7) If at a time when any cash is being detained under this section—

(a) an application for its forfeiture is made under this Act; or

(b) proceedings are instituted, whether in Trinidad and Tobago or elsewhere, against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected,
