

MARCH 2007

[KQ 385]

Sub. Code : 2402

II. Short notes : (6 × 5 = 30)

M.D.S. DEGREE EXAMINATION.

(Revised Regulations)

Branch I — Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

- (a) CSF Rhinorrhoea
- (b) Management of malunited zygomatic complex fracture

(For candidates admitted from the Academic Year 2004-05 onwards)

- (c) Recent concepts in antibiotics for oral and maxillofacial surgery

Paper II — MINOR ORAL SURGERY AND TRAUMA

Time : Three hours Maximum : 100 marks

Theory : Two hours and forty minutes Theory : 80 marks

M.C.Q. : Twenty minutes M.C.Q. : 20 marks

Answer ALL questions.

Draw suitable diagrams wherever necessary.

- I. Essay questions :
 1. Discuss the various management strategies for a patient with pan-facial fractures. (20)
 2. Discuss the causes and management of oral antral communication with various factors governing the choice of treatment. (15)
 3. Briefly discuss the various spaces associated tooth infection involving mandibular teeth. Add a note on spread of infections to the deep spaces of the neck, evaluating their clinical features. (15)