

REPORT ON EAMCET-2010

CONDUCTED BY JNT UNIVERSITY HYDERABAD

(ON BEHALF OF APSCHE, HYDERABAD)

The Andhra Pradesh State Council of Higher Education assigned the prestigious task of conducting EAMCET-2010 to the Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University Hyderabad vide Lr. No. APSCHE/CETS/EAMCET2010/Dec. dated 23-12-2009 for the consecutive 13th time.

The notification for EAMCET-2010 was released on 15th February, 2010 and the sale of applications was commenced from 22nd February, 2010. This time the sale of applications was done through Postal Dept., Andhra Bank, E-seva and AP Online. The Details of the EAMCET-2010 schedule is given in Annexure-I.

A total of 3,86,469 applications were sold out of which 2,52,144 applications were sold through Postal department, 94,334 were sold through Andhra Bank, 34,510 through e-seva and 5,481 through AP Online.

A total of 3,83,985 candidates registered for the EAMCET-2010 examination. Out of them, 3,29,283 registered for Engineering and 54,702 for Agriculture & Medicine. The Hall Tickets were issued to 328979 for Engineering and 54615 for Agriculture & Medicine.

A total of 24 Regional centres were identified out of which Medak and Vikarabad Regional Centres were added for the first time during this year. The details of applications sold and registrations region wise is enclosed in Annexure-II. The examination was conducted on 30-05-2010 from 10.00AM to 1.00PM for Engineering (E) stream and from 2.30 PM to 5.30 PM for Agriculture & Medicine (AM) stream. The Set Code 'Q' was selected for Engineering (E) stream by Sri M.V. Ramana Rao, Hon'ble Minister for Technical Education, Govt. of AP and the set code 'S' was selected for Agriculture & Medicine stream by Sri P. Sudarshan Reddy, Hon'ble Minister for Medical & Health. The number of test centres in various regions is enclosed in Annexure-III.

The Percentage of attendance for Engineering was 96.08 and for Agriculture & Medicine was 93.72.

The details of candidates registered, present and absent region wise is enclosed in Annexure-IV. Both the tests consist of 160 multiple choice questions. Utmost care was taken to prevent malpractice and cases of impersonation with candidate specific OMRs and Nominal Rolls with photograph, Name and Date of Birth. A total of 11 malpractice cases (5 in Engineering and 6 in Agriculture & Medicine) were reported. The performance of these candidates in EAMCET-2010 examination has been cancelled as recommended by the malpractice prevention committee.

The confidential work has been started on 31-05-2010. The confidential team members have been drafted from various Universities and reputed Institutions.

A total of 20,000 invigilators, 750 observers and 35 special observers along with flying squads monitored the smooth conduct of examination. Revenue, Treasury, Police officials, APSRTC, APGENCO, Education Institutions cooperated for smooth conduct of the Examination.

For the first time the centre name and address along with the phone number of the centre were communicated to the candidate through SMS to enable for easy identification of the centres and to avoid late entry into the exam hall. The candidates were informed through SMS for reaching the centre well in advance and that even one minute late was not allowed. This effort has been well appreciated by the candidates and their parents.

The Preliminary key committee involving 20 subject experts met on 1-06-2010 and 4-06-2010. The committee consisted of experts drawn from various Universities, Degree / Junior colleges and other private institutions.

The Preliminary Key was released on 5th June, 2010 and the last date for receiving the objections from students was on 12-06-2010. The Final Key Committee again met on 12-06-2010 and reviewed all the objections received from the students, Teachers, Parents, Press & Media thoroughly. Duly taking into account the objections the Final Key is being released. The Final Key is enclosed in Annexure-V.

The Expert Key Committee finally concluded that

- i) All the questions are within the EAMCET-2010 syllabus except one question in Zoology
- ii) Each question has exactly one answer
- iii) All questions are framed correctly
- iv) The standard of the paper is good and the questions are distributed covering the entire syllabus.
- v) There are no errors in EAMCET-2010 Question paper for Engineering However for Agriculture & Medicine streams, one question was reported to be out of syllabus due to technical reasons.

In summary, the EAMCET-2010 Engineering Paper is an “Error Free” paper as promised by the EAMCET-2010 committee. However, the Agriculture & Medicine stream one question was deleted due to technical reasons and finally evaluated for 159 marks.

The Final Key is being released today (16-06-2010) along with results at 9.00AM by Sri M.V. Ramana Rao, Hon’ble Minister for Technical Education, Govt. of AP, Hyderabad along with the Results.

This year also weightage of 25% marks will be given to the marks obtained Intermediate Exam and 75% for marks obtained in EAMCET. The criteria for the ranking for Engineering and Agriculture & Medicine category is enclosed in Annexure-VI.

The Toppers in Engineering (E) and Agriculture & Medicine (AM) stream is given in Annexure – VII. The Analysis of EAMCET-2010 Results is presented in Annexure – VIII.

On behalf of the EAMCET-2010 committee and on my own behalf, I sincerely thank the Chairman, APSICHE, Principal Secretary, Higher Education, Director, Technical Education, Secretary, APSICHE and other officials of the AP State Council of Higher Education, Revenue, Treasury, Police Officials, APSRTC, APTRANCO, Educational Institutions, Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff of JNTUH, Regional Coordinators, Chief Superintendents, Invigilators, Observers and Special Observers for the successful completion of EAMCET-2010.
