

My BITSAT companion is an on-line computer based test program that helps YOU to prepare quickly and efficiently. Do you need to improve on the logic or language section? Do you need tips and strategies to improve your performance? Or, do you just need to manage your test-time more effectively?

My BITSAT companion provides full practice tests online. Your exam results are submitted to our academic counselors and you will receive a personalized preparation plan with explanations, reviews, tips, book - recommendation and strategies.

My BITSAT companion online is not just a way to test yourself on each type of question, it helps you learn from your mistakes. When you get an answer wrong, My BITSAT companion will explain the correct answer, and provide hints that will help you to decipher even the toughest question.

My BITSAT companion's online tests, provided by PAGE, the leading national expert on test preparation are the best in the field.

Online Test program tools must be designed to help students think - not just familiarize them to testing environment. My BITSAT companion is built precisely with this concept in mind. This helps each individual develop problem-solving strategies and critical thinking skills that are crucial for this test.